BIG BROTHER #68:

THE CASE OF THE ABSENT MINDED PROFESSOR:

30 JULY 1968:

Charles Wells, who makes his living by teaching Mathematics, has circulated a letter making Moralistic excuses for missing three moves in the Winners Game. (B.B.#4). He also spoiled the Gamesmaster Game (B.B.#1) by missing three moves. Yesterday I telephoned him and pointed out three large "Lies" and other shadings of the truth. He said he was going to other gamesmasters (ie. Rodlie Walker - a "has proved himself the liar, and possibly Diplomacy's most arrogant phony as well"-quote: from Costaguana, Vol.3#8(17 June'68-Page Ten.)) & ask that they print his letter. So, Charles, I guess it will take another Mathematics teacher to straighten you out. Sorry!

The Canadian players all get their moves in during the postal strike in Canada but Wells-125 miles away- can not do this task.

In B.B.#24, (12 Jan. 1967) we told all players in a full page EDITORIAL that "TELEGRAMS TO CLARION ARE USELESS". We advised to use telephone or special delivery which is great in Clarion. Telegrams are not delivered in Clarion and all players were not to use them.

Thirteen days is much longer than the 7 or 8 days many of the newer & inexperienced Gamesmasters use for some Winter and Spring moves. Especially since we always mail within 24 hours of the deadline & do not take weeks or even months like Well's "Lonely Mt." to get a diplomacy zine out. "Reinsel"

The ~~original~~ rule was adopted at the start of B.B.#1 Game in issue #2 of March 21, 1966. Wells was in this game! Think? It was repeated as rule 12D in #26 & 34 & many times thereafter. "Anytime I have moves from all of the players involved in a game, I reserve the right to compile or publish moves at that time to speed up the game". This was based on rule #2 in CHARLES WELLS own Lonely Mt. #3 publ. on 3 November 1965. Quote, "If all moves are received early, LONELY MT. WILL PUBLISH EARLY." Better read page 2 again Charles!??!

Well's rule #1 in same issue (3 Nov.'65) states: "If the original player fails to send in a move again (Total 2 misses) the standby becomes the official player for that country". Forgot this Charles? In Lonely Mt. #21, pg. six Charles states RULE: "The SECOND time a player misses moves in three game years, he is out immediately." Rough!???. Now also in original, "Rules for Lonely Mt. Postal Dipl. Games"-we look at Rule #7. Quote: "The alternate player will take over the playing of a country if the player for that country resigns, or if he misses two moves (of any sort) within two game years." Worse yet!???. In the B.B.#17 issue dated 8 Oct. 1966 rule #15 states: "If any player misses a total of any three (3) moves the civil government of his country has collapsed." We took Well's Rule made it less strict here! Fact: Winners Game (B.B.#4) started in B.B.#31 on 15 April 1967. Note! Now - Wells states "BUT REINSEL'S RULES ARE IDIOTIC.". I'm sorry Chas. Wells but you ARE AN IDIOT BECAUSE THESE RULES ARE RULES THAT YOU YOURSELF USED BEFORE I DID. (And mine is less harsh you "IDiot".)

You said in print that it was all right for Beardman to cheat in Diplomacy (He played two countries using the phoney name Eric Blake). You say you accept moves after a deadline. You even held up games for your friends a month or more! All I can say the great Chas Wells must answer this question: WOULD THOSE WHO CHEAT IN SMALL THINGS LIKE POSTAL DIPLOMACY BE HONEST IN REAL LIFE? I WONDER! I WONDER! HMM!
WELLS & WALKER WILL NOT RECEIVE OR BE PERMITTED TO PLAY IN BIG BROTHER!
